

Tracking kororā (Little blue penguins / Eudyptula minor) at Port Taranaki. Details of pairs nesting in 2021

September 2021: Parents from nests #6 and #10 tracked with GPS for 24 hours. They return to the nest to feed chicks at night.

September 2021: Parents from nests #14 and #15 and a male from #16 were tracked with GPS for 24 hours.
These birds were feeding chicks and returning to the nests at night.

These birds were feeding chicks and returning to the nests at night except female #4 who had a three-day trip before the GPS battery ran out.

